CALL FOR INPUTS AND PROPOSALS FROM STAKEHOLDERS ON DEVELOPMENT OF REGULATORY POLICY DOCUMENTS FOR COMMUNITY ORAL HEALTH OFFICERS

The Kenya Medical Practitioners and Dentists Council (KMPDC) is a body corporate established under Section 3 of the Medical Practitioners and Dentists Act (Chapter 253, Laws of Kenya), which was enacted in 1977. The Council is mandated to regulate the training and practice of medicine, dentistry and community oral health, and to regulate health institutions within the Republic of Kenya.

Pursuant to its mandate, the Council is in the process of developing policy documents that will enhance its regulation of the training and practice of Community Oral Health Officers (COHOs) in Kenya, including:

- a. Core curriculum for Diploma in Community Oral Health training programme, and
- b. Standards for community oral health training institution

In this regard, the purpose of this notice is to request relevant stakeholders to submit inputs and proposals for consideration in the development of these policy documents.

Kindly submit the inputs and proposals along with the supporting documents or evidence to the undersigned through ceo@kmpdc.go.ke and copy standards@kmpdc.go.ke by Friday, 19th June 2026. Physical documents can be delivered to the CEO's office at KMPDC Complex.

Your continued support is highly appreciated.
